

My family and I enjoy the benefits of satellite radio. As we travel in the west the choices of conventional radio are very limited, we love the wide variety of choice that satellite radio offers. I would like to encourage XM to carry more locally oriented content so that we can enjoy that content as we travel around the USA.

Please support their efforts to provide excellent, competitively priced content to their customers.